IMPRESSES TEACHERS WITH HARD TASK AHEAD

Entire Instructing Corps Is Addressed by Superintendent J. A. C. Chandler.

SSIGNMENTS ARE ANNOUNCED

ormal Opening of Public Schools Takes Place To-Day, When New Pupils Will Be Registered for

Facing unusual conditions and the any new problems incident thereto, to entire teaching force of the city chools of Richmond was addressed by uperintendent J. A. C. Chandler at ohn Marshall High School yesterday

Confronting the administration is. st, the maintenance of the open-air hools for another year, the fund hich supports these schools having exhausted. These schools have since passed the experimental ng since passed the age, and they have served as models entire State. Their value to entality is incalculable. Dr. Chandler ged upon the teaching force the need co-operation in obtaining funds for the continued operation of these thools, fifteen in number, which he ould like to open by January 1.

More than ever before would be specied of the teachers, because of conditions brought about by war, said Dr. Chandler. There was, instance, the expected decrease in lment caused, in part, by the asequent to the drafting of the wagemembers of the family, the creased cost of living and of school applies needed both by pupils and achers, and the need in so many omes of the older children going to ork, all of which would materially feet the operation of the city schools. meeting the exigencies of such the co-operation of the teachig body, but of every interested per-formal opening of the schools will take place to-day, when all new pupils will be registered.

FOR 1917-'18 SEASON assignment of teachers both thite and colored, to serve for the en-uing year was announced by Dr. Chan-

Will Exert Every Effort to Poll Up Big Majorities for Democratic Nominees.

GLOWING REPORTS ARE MADE

Conditions Throughout Virginia Said to Fully Warrant Belief That Rcpublican Candidates Will Suffer Heavy Defeat in November.

Firing their first big gun for the coming State election, the State Democratic Committee last night sounded the call to arms for a vigorous and aggressive campaign. The meeting was characterized by smiling assurances, but also by determined earnestness of purpose Almost all the members of the committee were there to assure the Democratic candidates who were present of not only a sure victory, but also of an unheard of majority, such as would throw a scare in the camp of the Republicans, from which they would not soon recover.

Most of the Democratic candidates Lyric to-day. For example, there is the Hirschoff Troupe of Romany Gypsies, who have a prominent place on the bill. There are five women and three men in the troupe seek as the description of the Democratic and made enthusiastic and encouraging speeches, stating that they were ready to do anything in accordance with the dierctions of the committee, which was the representative of the Democratic were present, and made enthusiastic

COMMITTEE INDORSES NATIONAL ADMINISTRATION

The conduct of a vigorous and untiring campaign, based on the record of thirty years' service, was the de-cision of the committee. It was made plain from the beginning that lethargy and apathy on the part of Democratic leaders was not to be thought of and not to be tolerated. This was the motion made by Taylor Thompson, of Nottoway, and adopted unanimously it is the sense of the committee that an active campaign be waged through-out the State. 2. Resolved, that we, the committee heartily indorse the State and national administration."

It was the consensus of opinion of the committeemen that it was their duty not only to assure victory, but it was their duty and privilege to roll up a tremendous majority. Each member made a glowing report of the condisaid that with close organization and untiring work the results of election would show the greatest Democratic majority in recent years. The speech made by Judge R. T. W. Duke, of the Seventh District, was typical of the speeches made and was heartily applauded and emphasized by all mem bers of the committee. Judge Duke
